No

There was some communication issues but this has improved

Staff are fantastic, caring, patient and supportive. School's facilities are excellent. I have not experienced anything negative during my son's time there

NOTHING SO FAR

No Am just very happy with the school as a whole the staff and all the management. For their good work and support.

My son is always happy to go to school. He has really progressed this year and I am very happy and proud of him. The school offers a lot of support to the family as well as their students.

Make teachers come more earlier

My has enjoyed being at this school

Aston has had a wonderful year in Lewis Carroll class. He has grown and developed so many skills with the incredible support from all the class staff and his peers. I am so proud of all his achievements

A big Thanks to Amy and her class

When my child first When to durrant School the teacher was brilliant will call me to inform me all about my child but as teacher leaving and new ones come thing started to change i was not happy with the most of the assistants teacher.

Alicia had her best years at durants pitfield site and im so sad that it's her last month at this amazing school . Thank you for everything. The staff are truly amazing the teachers and T.As and the office staff . Ps Sammy the support family officer you are so amazing thank you 😊 hopefully I will see you guys at workshops and maybe one day my son kai will join the durant school
